To Women /-Networks / -Members,

Berlin Hotel Contingent Offer
for women, -networks and associated partner

Ladies and Gentlemen:

interesting hotel contingents at very special rates for women / -networks and their associated partner /-companies are now open to be booked.

The order deadline for these special conditions is May 16, 2007.

The majority of hotels I visited myself. My aim was to offer friendly, modern and bright hotels with a warm atmosphere and comfortably situated with good infrastructure and in easy reach of the GlobeWoman location Hotel Intercontinental. 10 to 25 minutes walking, respectively public transport, are enough from there to reach the hotels offered below.

Whether you are travelling individually or within a group: you profit from the arranged tariffs for contingents! All rooms will be sold in accordance to the principle "first come, first serve", provided your order reaches the hotel in time, including the keyword. And your keyword, opening the door to reduced rates as mentioned is: ADLER'S GloWo -1 !
